

Are you compatible with your loved one? Check with Love calculator

Time and again, one encounters bouts of insecurity where one seeks succor in instruments that serve as an assurance of love. In vain do they seek succor in an imitation of an embrace of purported love, however superficial it be.

A well known and oft sighted application on the web, Love Calculator is a legendary application. Anyone who has been on the net in the past few years would have at the least, once have chanced upon it. Like other annoying applications like the Hamster Dance and dancing baby, the love calculator has achieved legendary status on the net as well and has been rendered immortal in the world of forwards. It is one of those mails that has flooded mailboxes and spread worldwide.

Explanations galore have been proffered by the owners of such websites to establish their authenticity. Here is what the makers of the application say.

A name can tell a lot about the person named. Names are not randomly chosen: they all have a meaning. Doctor Love knew this so he made another great invention just for the lonely you!

Sometimes you'd like to know if a relationship with someone could work out. Therefore Doctor Love himself designed this great machine for you. With The Love Calculator you can calculate the probability on a successful relationship between two people. The Love Calculator is an affective way to get an impression of what the chances are on a relationship between certain people.

Boredom of course lends one to pass time on the net and in the course, download a few applications like the Love Calculator. Two text boxes, an enter button ... that's the simplicity of it all. One simply types the desired names in the boxes and presses enter. The result is a percentage that is a purported derivation from the names entered. This supposedly is a reflection of romantic plausibility between the two names.

More often than not, one dismisses it as an attempt at levity. However, narrow minded its definition of love be, it still remains an instrument of solace to the love struck that crawl the web for solace. A rather traditional approach to love, one would say to "Dr.Love".

Now not all of us are experts like Dr. Love. A love calculator based on a more sophisticated love formula would be interesting indeed. An enhancement indeed. There are many that have of late sprouted over the World Wide Web.

Whether it be a friend who loves you in secret or checking and assuring oneself that a love is faithful and shall remain, here is a chance to put the love to test. Additional details like date of birth, month of birth and zodiac might assess your love compatibility more accurately. These of course result in the accurate portrayal of your love, as the website claims. Nothing lost in giving it a try, we say.
